College Districts

From: Frank Zotter, Jr. FZ

Subject: Classified Employees – Notification of Reasonable Assurance of Employment
Memo No. 03-2016 (CC)

Classified Employees

In order for classified employees who do not work during the summer to be held ineligible for unemployment benefits, section 1253.3 of the Unemployment Insurance Code requires that districts give or send these employees a “letter of reasonable assurance” no later than 30 days prior to the last day of the academic year or term.¹ The Code requires very specific language. The attached sample letters comply with Code requirements.

Letter No. 1 is a sample letter for classified employees who work less than 12 months.

Letter No. 2 is a sample letter for categorical, special, or federally-funded classified employees who work for less than 12 months.

Letter No. 3 is a sample letter for classified substitutes to be used if the college district has a classified substitute list.

General

Community College Districts should be aware that if the economic terms and conditions of an employee’s work change significantly (more than 20% reduction in income) after the recess between academic terms, the notice of reasonable assurance does not bar the employee from collecting unemployment insurance. For instance if the likely number of days a regular substitute is likely to work decreases by more than 20%, that substitute may be eligible for unemployment benefits for the summer.
